Vineyard Notes

Nestled into the Cascade Mountains, Clos CheValle was planted in 2004 and 2005 on the sunny slopes of Lake Chelan. This Washington blend highlights the true nature of this alpine site. Varietals currently planted are: Chardonnay, Pinot Gris, Riesling, Gewurztraminer, Viognier, Syrah, Pinot Noir, and Pinot Meunier.

Tasting Notes

Bold nose of mandarin and geranium entice with slight spice. A lush palate offers flavors of blood orange, savory brioche, and lemon curd.
